Major D. A. Shaw then submitted the following motion in writing and was read to the Society as follows:

"I move that General John C. Fremont be elected an Honorary Member of this Society of Pioneers and that a committee of five members be appointed to invite him and Mrs. Fremont to visit with us at a time to be designated by the committee, and that a banquet be had at that time in their honor."

Which motion was seconded by John Brown Sr. and John M. Muscott who expressed great pleasure of embracing the opportunity this offered them of seconding a motion in honor of their old friend and acquaintance, Gen. John C. Fremont, which motion on being put to a vote was unanimously and enthusiastically
